Werewolf Shaman

NAME: _____

PLAYER: _____

Your life revolves around rhythms and beats—you hear the music of the land, spoken to you by your ancestors and animal spirits. Never one to be satisfied with standing still, you're always moving on to the next new gig, the next new quest, the next new meal. You don't really do 'plans' or 'tactics' but play things by ear. You march to your own unique drumbeat which can make you seem a bit unpredictable to someone that can't hear it. But, even your harshest critics cannot deny that your energy is infectious, and soon find that they are following your pace, working together with others on your side to form a beautiful harmony.
