Giant Enchanter

NAME: _____

PLAYER: _____

Some say life is like a box of chocolates, and you couldn't agree more. You live for the surprise and the pure joy that comes with each tiny morsel. Sure, every now and then life throws you a sour nut log, but that just makes the peanut-butter creams and salted caramels all the sweeter. When an opportunity presents itself to make something special, you are at your most enchanting. You take life as it comes and do your best to make it sweeter. But you also have an artistic temperament, and your moods can swing at a moment's notice. When something you're working on doesn't go as planned, the skies darken around you and you sometimes fall into a deep funk. But then a rainbow will break through the clouds and leave you joyful again.
