Zombie Illusionist

NAME: _____

PLAYER: _____

You are the Showstopper -- you go BIG or not at all! In the past--or a past life--you may have played it safe and shambled through your tasks without thought, but just look where that got you! Now, you are determined to make every moment, and every dish, special and grand. But you're not impatient or impulsive, you would gladly wait for the perfect opportunity to make the fireworks really dazzle! Often times, people judge you on your appearance--which has seen better days. Perhaps your act boldly to compensate for this, but much like a grand cake, you have layers. Let people think what they want because if they're underwhelmed at first, it will just make it that much more impressive when you truly get your chance to shine!
