

LEGUMIER

Vampire Noble

NAME: _____

PLAYER: _____

You have a refined palate that you've developed over countless centuries. You seek out the finest of finery and the deepest of opulences because anything less would be beneath your exacting standards. Seeking out decadent wonders and new experiences is what drives you to travel and adventure. Does this make you a garish epicurean, as some people say? Of course not. If you know what is best --and you do--then why would you choose something lesser? Though lavish, you are by no means selfish or miserly. Yours is a noble spirit who enjoys sharing the wealth of finery in your life with others and, perhaps, bringing them around to your way of thinking. You're told you can be quite persuasive when you put your mind to it.
